

Nursery Manager

Loen Nursery growing facility grows and ships a wide variety of plants. We grow container and field grown plants. We ship through out the US and Canada. If you have experience in growing and managing people, a passion for plants, we are interested in talking to you.

Responsibilities:

Task Management
Managing Potting Crews
Managing Labor Crews
Organize harvest and shipping of plants
IPM, weed control, watering pruning, spacing, fertilization, scouting
Training Staff on nursery growing, safety, inspection of work
Secure and protect plants from wind and adverse hot or cold weather conditions
Manage construction projects
Order Pulling
Facility Maintenance

Weekly List
Managing Section Manager
Scheduling labor of plants, ready for market
Plant Health, best practices
Proactive use of equipment and new technology, potting machines
Efficiency on going improvement for people and equipment, best practices
Water Management

Develops consistency of product, and quality
Quality control
On time management all areas

Qualifications:

Prefer Horticultural degree 2 or 4 years
Work experience minimum 5-year similar growing operation
Prefer English/Spanish
Equipment use of tractor, loaders, forklifts, excavators, tree spade, potting machines
Basic construction skills
Irrigation skills
People management, organization and communication skills
Computer user skills

Benefits:

- Time and a half after 40 hours
- Health Insurance
- Dental Insurance
- Vacation pay
- Sick pay
- After 90 days, holiday pay